Dear Aunt Nancy:

I was recently recommended and accepted to participate as a student leader in the People to People Leadership Summit in California this summer. This summit will teach me leadership skills and help me explore future educational opportunities. The 10-day experience includes a mock interview, interaction with other students my age, educational workshops, and a university-campus visit.

People to People student leaders are carefully evaluated before their acceptance into the program. I am excited to share my experience with my peers, family, and friends when I return. Personally, I am looking forward to exploring the UCLA campus and learning more about the SAT and ACT college placement exams. As a student leader I can earn high school and college credit because of the many educational elements in my program. It will truly help me get a head start on the college experience.

I am currently asking my family and friends for financial sponsorship to help me with tuition, and I hope I can count on your support. In case you haven't heard of People to People, President Dwight D. Eisenhower founded People to People in 1956. He believed that if people from different cultures could come together in peace and friendship, so eventually would nations.

The program tuition is [$tuition], which includes meals, transportation, accommodations, and educational activities. I am asking [number] people to donate [$amount] to help me reach my goal. Is it possible for you to assist me by making a contribution? I plan to share my experience with friends and family when I return by presenting my journal and photographs.

My program tuition is due [date]. Checks may be made payable to People to People and forwarded to me in the enclosed, self-addressed envelope. Your generous contribution would enable me to share in this wonderful opportunity. Thank you in advance for your gracious consideration and support.

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Wilson
